Performance Evidence

Evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit in the context of the job role, and:

- complete at least three information sessions with people who require support to access public transport
- at least one of the above sessions must be with an individual and at least one of the above sessions must be with a group of people
- assist at least three people to use public transport independently, documenting the outcomes of travel experiences.

Knowledge Evidence

Demonstrated knowledge required to complete the tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit:

- current practices, philosophies and theories relevant to facilitating independent travel:
 - the impact of social devaluation on an individual's quality of life
 - competency and image enhancement as a means of addressing devaluation
 - practices which focus on the individual person
 - strengths-based practice
 - active support
 - person-centred practice
- range of travel information available, including through applications, social media and other information technology (IT) sources
- ways that transport providers can participate in information provision:
 - providing information sessions
 - providing access to resources including timetables and maps
 - providing training sessions for the use of applications and websites
- processes for determining and mitigating risks
- local transport options and operations.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in the workplace, with the addition of simulations and scenarios where the full range of contexts and situations have not been provided in the workplace.

Assessment must ensure access to:

- facilities, equipment and resources that reflect real working conditions and model industry operating conditions and contingencies
- resources including printed timetables and travel information presented as applications, websites or in other digital formats
- organisational policies and procedures
- opportunities for engagement with people receiving support services and their carer and others involved in service provision.

Assessors must satisfy the Standards for Registered Training Organisations' requirements for assessors.
