Release 1	This version was released in CHC Community Services Training Package release 1.0 and meets the requirements of the 2012 Standards for Training Packages. Significant changes to elements and performance criteria. New evidence requirements for assessment.

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks:

- supported induction and integration on at least one occasion, including:
 - establishing processes for resolving issues between workers, clients and other residents
 - explaining rules, expectations and consequences of personal and communal behaviour
- consistently protected the safety and welfare of clients, including:
 - establishing authority and planning supervision to minimise potential for harm
 - responding to incidents
 - maintaining a healthy and safe environment
 - supervising workers to promote young person's rights
- communicated and identified examples of positive behaviour to encourage cooperation of young person
- assessed specific needs of at least one young person and matched the needs to existing programs

- encouraged and supported at least one young person to participate in appropriate programs
- provided one client with relevant information regarding existing programs.

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the work role.

These include knowledge of:

- dynamics of adolescent offending
- dynamics of young offender's significant others
- understanding adolescent clients and their special needs as individuals and as part of a group, including specific needs relating to culture, ability, development and gender
- existing supervision programs, including their content, purpose and access protocols
- ways to identify and implement procedures used in a critical incident and/or situation, within relevant policy, procedures and legislation
- behaviour management models, theories and techniques
- security and safety procedures and policies.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in the workplace.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or is impractical.

Simulated assessment environments must simulate the real-life working environment where these skills and knowledge would be performed, with all the relevant equipment and resources of that working environment.

Assessors must satisfy the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015/AQTF mandatory competency requirements for assessors.
