

Australian Government

CHCSS00080 Induction to Leisure and Health

Release: 1

CHCSS00080 Induction to Leisure and Health

Modification History

Release	Comments
Release 1	This version was released in CHC Community Services Training Package release 2.0 and meets the requirements of the 2012 Standards for Training Packages. Significant changes to units. June 2025: Skill set requirements appended to description as a change without release to preserve content in migration to new training package authoring system.

Description

This skill set reflects the skill requirements for those working to support people to meet their leisure and recreational needs.

This skill set has been endorsed by industry as suitable for individuals who hold a qualification at Certificate III level or higher in an area involving provision of direct client care or support.

Units

CHCLAH001 Work effectively in the leisure and health industries

CHCLAH002 Contribute to leisure and health programming

CHCLAH003 Participate in the planning, implementation and monitoring of individual leisure and health programs

Pathways Information

These units provide credit towards a range of qualifications in the CHC Community Services Training Package at IV level.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Nil.

Skill Set Requirements

This skill set has been endorsed by industry as suitable for individuals who hold a qualification at Certificate III level or higher in an area involving provision of direct client care or support.

Target Group

This skill set is for people working in various care and support roles in the community services and health sectors who wish to develop leisure and health skills to further their career development.

Suggested words for Statement of Attainment

These competencies from CHC Community Services Training Package meet industry requirements for induction in leisure and health.