

Australian Government

CHCSS00102 Mental Health Co-existing Needs Skill Set

Release: 1

CHCSS00102 Mental Health Co-existing Needs Skill Set

Modification History

| Release   | Comments                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|-----------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Release 1 | New skill set. This version was released in CHC Community Services Training Package release 3.0 and meets the requirements of the 2012 Standards for Training Packages. New Skill Set June 2025: Skill set requirements appended to description as a change without release to preserve content in migration to new training package authoring system. |

Description

This skill set reflects the skill requirements for support workers providing services to clients with co-existing needs, including both mental health and alcohol and other drugs issues.

This skill set has been endorsed by industry as suitable for individuals who:

- hold a qualification at Certificate IV level or higher in alcohol and other drugs, mental health or related field

or

- have skills equivalent to the qualification requirement validated through a recognition of prior learning process

or

- have substantial industry experience, on the job training and development along with supervisor assessment of capacity.

Units

CHCMHS004 Work collaboratively with the care network and other services

CHCMHS005 Provide services to people with co-existing mental health and alcohol and other drugs issues

CHCMHS010 Implement recovery oriented approaches to complexity

CHCMHS011 Assess and promote social, emotional and physical wellbeing

Pathways Information

These units provide credit towards a range of qualifications in the CHC Community Services Training Package, including the CHC53315 Diploma of Mental Health.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Nil.

Skill Set Requirements

This skill set has been endorsed by industry as suitable for individuals who:

- hold a qualification at Certificate IV level or higher in alcohol and other drugs, mental health or related field

or

- have skills equivalent to the qualification requirement validated through a recognition of prior learning process

or

- have substantial industry experience, on the job training and development along with supervisor assessment of capacity.

Target Group

This skill set is for workers with existing experience or qualifications in alcohol and other drugs, mental health or related fields seeking to broaden or deepen their skills.

Suggested words for Statement of Attainment

These competencies from the CHC Community Services Training Package meet industry requirements for providing services to clients with co-existing mental health and alcohol and other drugs issues.