Modification History

Release	Comments
Release 1	This version first released with CUA Creative Arts and Culture Training Package version 2.0.

Performance Evidence

Evidence of the ability to:

- research the representation of the human form in historical and contemporary contexts
- develop, refine and implement ideas about the use of the human form for application to own work
- produce a complete body of creative work that shows ability to work effectively with the human form
- use feedback and reflection to assess success of completed work and identify further creative opportunities.

Note: If a specific volume or frequency is not stated, then evidence must be provided at least once.

Knowledge Evidence

To complete the unit requirements safely and effectively, the individual must:

- list and describe sources of information and ideas relevant to own practice
- outline commonly used research methodologies for creative practitioners
- describe in detail techniques used to represent or reflect the human form relevant to own area of practice
- explain the aspects of human physiology and anatomy that are relevant to own work
- outline the requirements of intellectual property and other legislation associated with arts practice.

Assessment Conditions

Assessment must be conducted in a safe environment where evidence gathered demonstrates consistent performance of typical activities experienced in creative arts industry environments. The assessment environment must include access to:

- information sources
- equipment, tools and materials used to produce work in the relative creative discipline.

Assessors of this unit must satisfy the requirements for assessors in applicable vocational educational and training legislation, frameworks and/or standards.
