Performance Evidence

The candidate must demonstrate the ability to complete the tasks outlined in the elements, performance criteria and foundation skills of this unit, including evidence of the ability to:

- contribute to at least one on-air presentation for each of the following:
 - pre-recorded
 - live.

In the course of the above, the candidate must:

- read scripted information in a natural way using different vocal techniques, and correct pronunciation and language
- identify and use techniques to communicate required messages to listeners
- identify correct microphone placement for optimum audio levels
- deliver pre-recorded and live content using microphone and recording equipment correctly, in collaboration with others.

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate knowledge to complete the tasks outlined in the elements, performance criteria and foundation skills of this unit, including knowledge of:

- factors that could attract and alienate listeners
- presentation styles and vocal techniques that are used to convey information on-air and situations in which they could be used
- strategies for and benefits of demonstrating respect and building rapport with on-air listeners
- strategies to evaluate performance and respond to feedback to improve techniques
- station operation procedures for finishing recordings
- procedures for presenting program segments live-to-air in conjunction with experienced broadcasters
- basic station operating procedures
- basic improvisation techniques

- work health and safety requirements relating to vocal care.

Assessment Conditions

Skills in this unit must be demonstrated in a workplace or simulated environment where the conditions are typical of those in a working environment in this industry.

This includes access to:

- scripted and recorded materials
- interaction with others required to demonstrate the performance evidence
- audio equipment required to demonstrate the performance evidence.

Assessors of this unit must satisfy the requirements for assessors in applicable vocational educational and training legislation, frameworks and/or standards.
