Modification History

Release	Comments
Release 1	This version first released with CUA Creative Arts and Culture Training Package Version 5.0.

Performance Evidence

The candidate must demonstrate the ability to complete the tasks outlined in the elements, performance criteria and foundation skills of this unit, including evidence of the ability to:

- perform proficiently as an accompanist before an audience on at least three occasions, according to different performance requirements.

In the course of the above, the candidate must:

- use listening skills and adjust musical aspects to match and balance with solo performer or performers
- adapt accompaniment prior to and during performance as required
- maintain professionalism, energy levels, and focus throughout performance.

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate knowledge to complete the tasks outlined in the elements, performance criteria and foundation skills of this unit, including knowledge of:

- accompaniment performance conventions and customs
- key technical and personal requirements for accompanists
- techniques to overcome performance anxiety
- strategies for evaluating and improving own accompaniment skills
- methods for adapting accompaniment in line with different performance contexts and requirements
- issues that arise in the context of performing as an accompanist, and how they might be overcome
- work health and safety (WHS) principles required when performing as an accompanist
- strategies to respond to feedback.

Assessment Conditions

Skills in this unit must be demonstrated in a workplace or simulated environment where the conditions are typical of those in a working environment in this industry.

This includes access to:

- instruments and equipment required to demonstrate the performance evidence
- opportunities to accompany performers before an audience
- venue with adequate space and acoustic qualities for performing an accompaniment.

Assessors of this unit must satisfy the requirements for assessors in applicable vocational educational and training legislation, frameworks and/or standards.
