| Release 1 | This version first released with CUA Creative Arts and Culture Training Package version 2.0. |

Application

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to explore and use a range of combined techniques to produce finished prints from design concepts which are reviewed and adjusted during the work in progress.

It applies to individuals who are still developing their expertise in design and technique. They work under supervision but have some independence and use discretion and judgement within defined guidelines.

No licensing, legislative or certification requirements apply to this unit at the time of publication.

Unit Sector

Visual communication – printmaking

Elements and Performance Criteria

Assessment Requirements for CUAPRI301 Produce prints

Modification History

| Release   | Comments                                                                                     |
|-----------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Release 1 | This version first released with CUA Creative Arts and Culture Training Package version 2.0. |

Performance Evidence

Evidence of the ability to:

- explore ideas, techniques and historical and contemporary printmaking practice and choose techniques to support own work
- identify and acquire resources required to complete chosen work
- adapt and use combined printmaking techniques to create a single major work or multiple prints that show technical proficiency in chosen techniques
- review and document the work process.

Note: If a specific volume or frequency is not stated, then evidence must be provided at least once.

Knowledge Evidence

To complete the unit requirements safely and effectively, the individual must:

- outline basic intellectual property considerations for printmaking work
- outline methods of exploring techniques to achieve different effects in printmaking
- summarise the main aspects of historical and contemporary printmaking practice and how they can inform own design ideas
- describe, for the elements and principles of design, the key characteristics, key interrelationships and use in prints
- summarise, for a range of tools and equipment used to produce prints, key physical features and uses, cleaning and maintenance techniques and storage requirements
- describe the physical properties and capabilities of a range of materials and techniques used to produce prints
- discuss typical work space requirements for producing prints including ways of organising space and equipment for efficient work operation
- describe procedures for working safely with printmaking materials, tools and equipment.

Assessment Conditions

Assessment must be conducted in a safe environment where evidence gathered demonstrates consistent performance of typical activities experienced in creative arts industry environments. The assessment environment must include access to:

- equipment, tools and materials used to produce prints
- relevant information sources.

Assessors of this unit must satisfy the requirements for assessors in applicable vocational educational and training legislation, frameworks and/or standards.
