

Australian Government

Assessment Requirements for DEFCHP006

Perform the duties of a chaplain in a deployed environment

Release: 2

Assessment Requirements for DEFCHP006 Perform the duties of a chaplain in a deployed environment

Modification History

Release 2. Modifications made to Assessment Conditions.

Release 1. This unit was released in DEF Defence Training Package release 1.0 and meets the Standards for Training Packages.

Performance Evidence

Evidence required to demonstrate competence in this unit must be relevant to and satisfy all of the requirements of the elements and performance criteria on at least one occasion and includes:

- meeting denominational or multi-faith requirements
- presenting abstract and symbolic ideas to groups and individuals
- taking part in and facilitating interpersonal exchanges with groups and individuals
- selecting language style suitable to audience and context for the purpose of establishing, maintaining and developing relationships
- exploring issues and or problem solving
- summarising and clarifying ideas
- following instructions
- reporting information
- planning events and activities
- liaising with organisations and agencies
- analysing and evaluating information
- retaining professionalism under duress
- assessing Rules of Engagement with regard to their application to a chaplain
- identifying and understanding culture, structures, ranks and terminology of other services, coalition forces, other government and NGOs within the deployed environment

Knowledge Evidence

Evidence required to demonstrate competence in this unit must be relevant to and satisfy all of the requirements of the elements and performance criteria and include knowledge of:

- chaplaincy role and function
- world religions together with associated religious beliefs and practices
- denominational doctrines, worship and practices
- principles of chaplaincy care
- relevant organisational processes and protocols
- relevant records maintenance requirements

- relevant support agencies
- code of behaviour
- professional codes of practice
- ethical standards
- command and control structures including NATO staff system
- joint, combined and coalition doctrine
- structure of chaplain's organisations in Coalition partners
- chaplain's role in civil military affairs
- role in intelligence gathering within the AO
- Laws of Armed Conflict with regard to their application to a chaplain
- notification policies and procedures

Assessment Conditions

Assessors must hold credentials specified within the Standards for Registered Training Organisations current at the time of assessment.

Assessment must satisfy the Principles of Assessment and Rules of Evidence and all regulatory requirements included within the Standards for Registered Training Organisations current at the time of assessment.

Assessment processes and techniques must be appropriate to the language, literacy and numeracy requirements of the work being performed and the needs of the candidate.

Assessment must occur in workplace operational situations. Where this is not appropriate, assessment must occur in simulated workplace operational situations that reflect workplace conditions.

Resources for assessment must include access to:

- a range of relevant exercises, case studies and/or simulations
- relevant materials, tools, equipment and personal protective equipment currently used in industry
- applicable documentation, including workplace procedures, regulations, codes of practice and operation manuals
- acceptable means of simulation assessment.

Links

Companion Volume implementation guides are found in VETNet -

<https://vetnet.gov.au/Pages/TrainingDocs.aspx?q=6bdbab1e-11ed-4bc9-9cba-9e1a55d4e4a9>