Application

This unit describes the skills required to render explosive ordnance inert. Rendering explosive ordnance inert is normally undertaken to provide a training display or model but may also be used to allow transportation of specific explosive ordnance required for testing or analysis. It does not cover the authorisation process to render explosive ordnance inert.

This unit applies to personnel who are required to render explosive ordnance inert.

The skills and knowledge described in this unit must be applied within the legislative, regulatory and policy environment in which they are carried out. Organisational policies and procedures must be consulted and adhered to.

Those undertaking this unit would work independently and/or as part of a team, under indirect supervision. They would use discretion and judgement and take responsibility for the quality of their outputs, while performing complex tasks in broad range of contexts

No licensing, legislative or certification requirements apply to unit at the time of publication.
