Performance Evidence

Evidence required to demonstrate competence must satisfy all of the requirements of the elements and performance criteria. If not otherwise specified the candidate must demonstrate evidence of performance of the following on at least one occasion.

- operating radio frequency radiation measuring equipment
- measuring and analysing radio frequency radiation
- developing radio frequency radiation safety plans that adhere to Australian and organisational standards and recognise stakeholders requirements
- applying knowledge of relevant WHS and radio frequency radiation legislative frameworks
- identifying inspection tools and methods appropriate to the workplace
- identifying intervention points for advice to assist in work and to guide problem solving

Knowledge Evidence

Evidence required to demonstrate competence must satisfy all of the requirements of the elements and performance criteria. If not otherwise specified the depth of knowledge demonstrated must be appropriate to the job context of the candidate.

- environmental factors relevant to workplace radio frequency radiation
- WHS requirements for the organisation/industry and for supervisors/managers in the workplace
- radio frequency radiation control requirements
- radio frequency radiation exposure level standards/requirements
- radio frequency radiation measuring techniques and equipment
- reliability of measures

- relevant Australian and international standards
- relevant legislation
- relevant organisational policy and standards
- tolerances of error that may apply

Assessment Conditions

Competency should be assessed in an actual workplace or in a simulated environment, with access to equipment and infrastructure appropriate to the outcome. Competency should be demonstrated over time to ensure the candidate is assessed across a variety of situations.

Assessors must satisfy the NVR/AQTF mandatory competency requirements for assessors.
