Performance Evidence

An individual demonstrating competency must satisfy all of the elements and performance criteria in this unit.

There must be evidence that the individual has worked effectively in a socially diverse environment on a minimum of two different occasions, including:

- recognising cultural and social differences in the workplace
- responding to cross-cultural or cross-social misunderstandings.

Knowledge Evidence

An individual must be able to demonstrate the knowledge required to perform the tasks outlined in the elements and performance criteria of this unit. This includes knowledge of:

- principles of equal employment opportunity (EEO) and anti-discrimination legislation as they apply to company and employee rights and responsibilities in the workplace
- recognition of differences between people from different cultural and social backgrounds, including those differing from own
- understanding of the basis of cultural difference, including behaviour or practices that can cause offence, and related strategies for interacting in ways that are culturally and socially sensitive
- communication strategies and styles appropriate to diverse audiences related to the workplace.

Assessment Conditions

Assessment of the skills in this unit of competency must take place under the following conditions:

- physical conditions:
 - a workplace setting or an environment that accurately represents a real workplace
- specifications:

- rights and responsibilities relating to anti-discrimination and EEO
- relevant company policies and procedures
- relationships:
 - opportunities to interact with others using typical workplace communication processes
 - interactions with team members and supervisors, or realistic scenarios or role-plays.

Assessors of this unit must satisfy the requirements for assessors in applicable vocational education and training legislation, frameworks and/or standards.
