

Australian Government

FWPSS00077 Introduction to Timber Systems Design - Workplace Practices Skill Set

Release: 1

FWPSS00077 Introduction to Timber Systems Design - Workplace Practices Skill Set

Modification History

Release	Comments
Release 1	This version released with FWP Forest and Wood Products Training Package Release 9.1.

Description

This skill set covers the skills and knowledge required to work, communicate and adhere to workplace health and safety practices in a timber system design environment for building construction.

Pathways Information

These units of competency provide credit towards qualifications in the FWP Forest and Wood Products Training Package, including:

- FWP31220 Certificate III in Timber Systems Design

Licensing/Regulatory Information

No licensing, legislative or certification requirements apply to this skill set at the time of publication.

Skill Set Requirements

- FWPCOR2208 Communicate and interact effectively in the forest and wood products industry
- FWPCOR2210 Follow workplace health and safety policies and procedures in forest and wood products operations
- FWPTMM3215 Work effectively in the timber systems design industry

Target Group

This skill set is for individuals who work in a timber system design environment at an entry level in the forest and wood products industry.

Suggested words for Statement of Attainment

These competencies from the FWP Forest and Wood Products Training Package meet the industry requirements for working in a timber production or design environment.