

Australian Government

Assessment Requirements for MARF057 Respond to marina emergencies

Release: 1

Assessment Requirements for MARF057 Respond to marina emergencies

Modification History

Release 1. This is the first release of this unit of competency in the MAR Maritime Training Package.

Performance Evidence

Evidence required to demonstrate competence in this unit must be relevant to and satisfy all of the requirements of the elements, performance criteria and range of conditions on at least one occasion and include:

- applying precautions and required actions to minimise, control or eliminate hazards that may exist when responding to an emergency or incident
- applying relevant work health and safety (WHS)/occupational health and safety (OHS) requirements, policies, procedures and safe work practices
- communicating effectively with others when responding to an emergency or incident
- completing documentation related to an emergency or incident response
- following evacuation procedures according to workplace policies and procedures
- following supervisor instructions
- operating safety equipment correctly and adapting to any differences
- reporting and/or rectifying identified problems, faults, or malfunctions promptly according to with workplace policies and procedures
- reading, interpreting and recording instructions, procedures and information
- reporting an emergency accurately and according to operating procedures
- selecting and using required personal protective equipment (PPE)
- working collaboratively with others when responding to an emergency or incident.

Knowledge Evidence

Evidence required to demonstrate competence in this unit must be relevant to and satisfy all of the requirements of the elements, performance criteria and range of conditions and include knowledge of:

- basic understanding of the principles of duty of care relevant to scope of own responsibilities and operating under supervision
- emergency procedures manual and evacuation plan
- emergency response plan, its contents and purpose
- emergency techniques, equipment and relevant systems
- relevant regulatory requirements applicable to emergency or incident
- role and responsibility of a marina fire warden and first aid officer safety considerations

- site layout and building construction
- types of emergencies
- typical problems that can occur during an emergency or incident and actions that can be taken
- vessel types and construction relevant to marina emergencies
- WHS/OHS requirements and work practices.

Assessment Conditions

Assessors must hold credentials specified within the Standards for Registered Training Organisations current at the time of assessment.

Assessment must satisfy the Principles of Assessment and Rules of Evidence and all regulatory requirements included within the Standards for Registered Training Organisations current at the time of assessment.

Assessment processes and techniques must be appropriate to the language, literacy and numeracy requirements of the work being performed and the needs of the candidate.

Assessment must occur in workplace operational situations, where this is not appropriate, assessment must occur in simulated workplace operational situations that replicate workplace conditions.

Resources for assessment include:

- applicable documentation such as workplace procedures, regulations, codes of practice, operation manuals, manufacturer instructions and procedures
- tools, equipment, machinery, materials and relevant PPE currently used in industry.

Links

Companion Volume Implementation Guides are found in VETNet -

<https://vetnet.gov.au/Pages/TrainingDocs.aspx?q=772efb7b-4cce-47fe-9bbd-ee3b1d1eb4c2>