POLCOV044 Plan for intelligence activities

Release: 1

POLCOV044 Plan for intelligence activities

Modification History

Release 1. This is the first release of this unit of competency in the POL Police Training Package.

Application

This unit describes the skills required to plan for police intelligence activities, including establishing intelligence activity scope and managing the planning process. The planning process incorporates the assessment of risks that may influence the completion or outcomes of the intelligence activities.

This unit applies to those working as intelligence practitioners within the intelligence process in a policing environment.

The skills and knowledge described in this unit must be applied within the legislative, regulatory and policy environment in which they are carried out. Organisational policies and procedures must be consulted and adhered to, particularly those related to planning processes, approvals, and resource management.

Those undertaking this unit would demonstrate the ability to prioritise and evaluate information for planning purposes. They would be required to apply critical thinking and analytical skills to meet responsibilities and communicate plans to other staff. They would be expected to work both autonomously and within teams as required. They would perform complex tasks and demonstrate ethical and professional policing qualities, displaying adaptability across a broad range of contexts.

No licensing, legislative or certification requirements apply to unit at the time of publication.
