POLCOV047 Liaise with clients and stakeholders for intelligence purposes

Release: 1

POLCOV047 Liaise with clients and stakeholders for intelligence purposes

Modification History

Release 1. This is the first release of this unit of competency in the POL Police Training Package.

Application

This unit describes the skills required to liaise with clients and stakeholders to facilitate information and intelligence exchanges within the intelligence process of a policing context. It includes establishing networks and relationships and communicating and interacting with other clients and stakeholders.

This unit applies to those working as intelligence practitioners as part of developing strategic partnerships to support the intelligence process of policing.

The skills and knowledge described in this unit must be applied within the legislative, regulatory and policy environment in which they are carried out. Organisational policies and procedures must be consulted and adhered to, particularly those related to information security, privacy, and codes of conduct.

Those undertaking this unit would be expected to work both autonomously and within teams as required. They would be required to apply critical thinking and analysis skills when liaising with stakeholders. They would demonstrate ethical and professional policing qualities, and show adaptability while performing complex tasks across a broad range of contexts.

No licensing, legislative or certification requirements apply to unit at the time of publication.
