PSPTIS124 Apply theories to translating work practices

Modification History

Not applicable.

Application

This unit describes the performance outcomes, skills and knowledge required to research, analyse and apply a range of approaches to translating based on the history, development and progress of relevant theories and their current application to work assignments and practice. The application of translating theory is an essential component of translating work assignments which require justification and critiquing of work undertaken.

This unit applies to those working as translators in a range of professional settings.

The skills in this unit must be applied in accordance with Commonwealth and State or Territory legislation, Australian Standards and industry codes of practice.

No occupational licensing, certification or specific legislative requirements apply to this unit at the time of publication.

Competency Field

Translating and Interpreting
