PUADEF CM110B Supervise platoon level offensive operations

Revision Number: 1

PUADEF110B Supervise platoon level offensive operations

Modification History

Not applicable.

Unit Descriptor

Unit Descriptor

This unit covers the competency required to administer, lead and command groups of between 15 and 35 personnel under extreme conditions in high-risk environments. It is primarily focused on the duties of a platoon second in command who, while mainly employed to administer the platoon, may be required to supervise the group in a dynamic environment, often acting independently, and leading by example.

Offensive operations are characterised by rapid shifts of the main effort to take advantage of opportunities and momentum to defeat hostile forces through the capture or destruction of critical objectives.

Command as mentioned above is the authority in which a commander in the military service lawfully exercises over subordinates by virtue of rank or assignment.

Application of the Unit

Application of the Unit

The application of this unit in the workplace - the environments, complexities and situations involved - will be written during Phase II of the Review of the PUA00 Public Safety Training Package.

This text will be useful for the purposes of job descriptions, recruitment advice or job analysis; where possible, it will not be too job specific to allow other industries to import it into other Training Packages, where feasible.

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate competency in this unit

Assessment must confirm the ability to resupply and redistribute supplies; to evacuate casualties; to coordinate fire support from external agencies; to process prisoners of war; to conduct battlefield clearances and to distribute supplies and equipment.

Consistency in performance

Competency should be demonstrated over time in a range of environments that could be expected in the workplace.

Context of and specific resources for assessment

Context of assessment

Competency should be assessed in the context of leading and supporting a platoon commander as described in the Range Statement.

Assessment is in a simulated environment due to the nature of this high-risk environment.

Specific resources for assessment

Access to a group of between 15 and 35 personnel, its weapons and equipment, and appropriate operating areas.

Guidance information for assessment

Information that will assist or guide assessment will be written during Phase II of the Review of the PUA00 Public Safety Training Package.
