- arranged for return of greyhounds to kennels and conducted kennel maintenance procedures.

Knowledge Evidence

An individual must be able to demonstrate the knowledge required to perform the tasks outlined in the elements and performance criteria of this unit. This includes knowledge of:

- basic industry terminology and understanding of duties associated with role
- greyhound features for identification
- communication procedures within the kennel, including:
 - written and verbal report formats and protocols for reporting non-compliance issues to supervisor and stewards
- layout of approved race meeting kennel complex
- race meeting procedures and protocols, including for:
 - kennelling security and general wellbeing of greyhounds
 - conduct of pre-race procedures
 - conduct of post-race kennelling
- greyhound racing industry animal welfare requirements, including:
 - signals and symptoms of injured, distressed or sick greyhounds
 - safe handling techniques

- racing industry safety requirements, including safe operating procedures and workplace health and safety requirements
- relevant rules of racing for greyhounds, including state and local variations relating to kennelling, pre-race and post-race procedures and animal welfare.

Assessment Conditions

Assessment of skills must take place under the following conditions:

- physical conditions:
 - safe handling areas, such as racetracks with racing authority-approved kennels and associated facilities
- resources, equipment and materials:
 - materials and equipment relevant to assessing individual's ability to perform the duties of a kennel attendant at race meetings
- specifications:
 - work instructions and related documentation
- relationships (internal and/or external):
 - access to a variety of greyhounds and their handlers.

Assessors of this unit must satisfy the requirements for assessors in applicable vocational education and training legislation, frameworks and/or standards.
