

Australian Government

RIISS00006 Skill Set Supervision of Indigenous Employees

Release: 1

RIISS00006 Skill Set Supervision of Indigenous Employees

Modification History

Not applicable.

Description

This Skill Set is designed for experienced supervisors or managers who are seeking to broaden their skills for the purpose of leading a work team which includes Indigenous Australians or supervisors who are already working with Indigenous employees and require recognition of their current skills.

Pathways Information

These units of competency provide credit towards a range of supervisory qualifications in this or any other endorsed Training Package, including: BSB40807 Certificate IV in Frontline Management; TAE40110 Certificate IV in Training and Assessment.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not applicable.

Skill Set Requirements

RIILAT401A	Provide leadership in the supervision of Indigenous employees
TAEDEL301A	Provide work skill instruction

Target Group

This Skill Set is designed for experienced supervisors or managers who are seeking to broaden their skills for the purpose of leading a work team which includes Indigenous Australians or supervisors who are already working with Indigenous employees and require recognition of their current skills.

Suggested words for Statement of Attainment

This Skill Set from the RII09 Resources and Infrastructure Industry Training Package meets the industry requirements for those leading a work team which include Indigenous Australians.