Qualification Description

This qualification reflects the role of individuals who work at the leadership level for an agency or organisation that has legislated responsibility for fisheries management. In this role, they manage fisheries compliance functions, conduct workplace audits as well as contribute to fisheries management policy development at the broader industry and community level. They may have responsibilities in supporting and leading staff and managing staff performance.

All work is carried out to comply with workplace procedures, according to state/territory health and safety, food safety, biosecurity and environmental regulations, legislation and standards that apply to the workplace.

No licensing, legislative or certification requirements are known to apply to this unit at this time of publication.

Entry Requirements
