Release: 1

SISOSRF005 Lead surfing activities, intermediate manoeuvres

Modification History

Not applicable.

Application

This unit describes the performance outcomes, skills and knowledge required to instruct or guide dependent participants during surfing activities in intermediate wave conditions according to predetermined plans. It covers the skills required to adjust activities according to prevailing conditions and participant capabilities.

It requires the ability to develop session plans and to demonstrate and instruct intermediate surfing manoeuvres in waves up to one metre. To do this, instructors and guides must be proficient in surfing skills which are covered by other units.

This unit applies to any type of organisation that delivers outdoor recreation activities including commercial, not-for-profit and government organisations.

It applies to instructors and guides who work independently using discretion and judgement to manage operational logistics and risk within predetermined guidelines.

When working at or close to base and assistance, they manage routine problems in consultation with relevant personnel. Where assistance is not immediately available, leaders use additional skills, covered by other units, to manage significant problems, e.g. rescues, injury or illness in remote locations.

No occupational licensing, certification or specific legislative requirements apply to this unit at the time of publication.
