Evidence Guide

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the performance criteria, required skills and knowledge, range statement and the Assessment Guidelines for the Training Package.

Overview of assessment

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate competency in this unit

Evidence of the ability to:

- produce a range of sauces, dips and accompaniments for one or more cuisines
- produce food for multiple customers within commercial time constraints
- integrate knowledge of:
 - quality indicators for sauces, dips and accompaniments
 - ingredients
 - cultural considerations
 - features, functions and safe use of food preparation equipment
 - food safety practices for handling and storing Asian sauces, dips and accompaniments.

Context of and specific resources for assessment

Assessment must ensure use of:

- an operational commercial kitchen with the fixtures, large and small equipment and workplace documentation defined in the Assessment
- Guidelines; this can be a:
 - real industry workplace
 - simulated industry environment such as a training kitchen servicing customers
- industry-realistic ratios of kitchen staff to customers
- food preparation lists and standard recipes
- a variety of commercial ingredients.

Method of assessment

A range of assessment methods should be used to assess practical skills and knowledge. The following examples are appropriate for this unit:

- direct observation of the individual preparing sauces, dips and accompaniments
- evaluation of the taste of sauces, dips and accompaniments prepared by the individual
- projects that allow assessment of the individual's ability to produce a variety of sauces, dips and accompaniments for different occasions

- use of visual and taste recognition exercises so the individual can identify ingredient and product characteristics
- written or oral questioning to assess knowledge of culinary terms, quality indicators for sauces, dips and accompaniments, equipment, cookery methods and appropriate environmental storage conditions

- review of portfolios of evidence and third-party workplace reports of on-the-job performance by the individual.

Guidance information for assessment

The assessor should design integrated assessment activities to holistically assess this unit with other units relevant to the industry sector, workplace and job role, for example:

- SITHASC202 Produce Asian appetisers and snacks
- SITXFSA201 Participate in safe food handling practices.
